DONNA STOERING

Donna Stoering has been giving concerts since the age of five. A protégé of the late Sir Georg Solti, she is renowned both as a classical pianist and singer. She is a Grammy Award nominee, Artistic Ambassador of both the USA and Great Britain, Marshall Scholar, Artist in Residence to Oxford University, host/presenter of television programs about music on the national networks of numerous countries worldwide, youngest-ever judge of international music competitions in Russia, Italy, Canada, UK, and the creator/producer of music programs shown on the BBC and other networks. She is also the founder of Listen for Life (www.listenforlife.org) a global family of music listeners and performers, working together to restore music as a unifying force and channel of communication.

Donna is donating her time and talents to perform this FREE CONCERT which will serve to support the mission activities of the DAUGHTERS OF ST PAUL in the Pacific Islands.

Free-will donations will be gratefully accepted at the concert.
