

EFFECTIVE AUGUST 14, 2021

PARKING INSTRUCTIONS AT CENTURY SQUARE FOR WEEKEND MASS AND HOLY DAYS

Roman Catholic Church in the State of Hawaii
Cathedral Basilica of Our Lady of Peace

Step 1

- Arrive at the Century Square parking garage entrance on Bishop Street and drive up to the touch screen.

Step 2

- On the touch screen: Select Church parking.

OR

- If Church parking is unavailable to select, select public parking. (If Church parking is unavailable to select, that means that the maximum number of stalls are currently occupied by parishioners. You can still park in the garage but you will have to pay the public rate before you leave. Alternatively, you can select public parking and then immediately exit the parking garage during the grace period and park elsewhere.)

Step 3

- Take your parking ticket from the machine, park, and attend Church service.

Step 4

- If you received a Church parking ticket when you drove in, be sure to get your ticket validated by Church personnel. Validations are good for a total of 1.5 hours for weekend mass. (If you exceed the validated time, you will have to pay the public rate at the kiosk for the excess time.)

OR

- If you received a public ticket when you drove in, go to the kiosk in the parking garage and pay the public rate.

Step 5

- Drive to the exit, insert your ticket, and drive out.
